

Hospitality and Tourism Management (HTM)

Note: The following information applies to students whose major is anything other than pre-HTM major and who wish to be a pre-HTM major. The rules and procedures for declaring an upper division HTM major are different.

Admission to the pre-HTM major is controlled by the Payne School of Hospitality & Tourism Management. Students must meet specific requirements in order to be able to change to the pre-HTM major.

You may change to a pre-HTM major if you meet one of the following:

- You have completed 6-29 college units and have an overall GPA of at least 2.1
- You have completed 30-59 college units and have an overall GPA of at least 2.8
- You have completed 60 units or more and have an overall GPA of at least 3.0

When you meet one of the requirements listed above, visit the HTM advising office (PSFA 436B) for information on how to change your major.
